

Anthrozoology as International Practice (AIP) 2024

Day 1: Sunday 17 November
(American-friendly times)

Welcome Address: 15:45 UTC

UTC?

Session 1: 16:00–17:30 UTC

Luis M. Barboza-Arias (he/him)

PhD (2024), Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil

Between Spectrality and Multispecies Coexistence: Coyotes as Organizers of More-than-Human Narratives in Costa Rica

Camellia Schinner (she/any)

Bachelor's (2024), The New School, USA

A Survey of Increased Moral Consideration for Youth Livestock Project Animals

Dean Marks (he/him)

Pre-university student, TheDoGenius Institute, UK

Exploring the Memorialisation of Other-than Human Lives

Session 2: 18:00–19:30 UTC

Claire Musser (she/her)

PhD researcher, Falmouth University, UK

Bears in Hot Tubs: A Short Film About Learning to Coexist With the American Black Bear in LA

Elly Omondi (he/him)

Undergraduate, African Nazarene University, Kenya

Social and Cognitive Capabilities of Captive Chimpanzees

朱文越 Zhu Wen Yue (she/her)

Master's student, East China Normal University, China

The Art of Sympathy and Cruelty: A Comparative Analysis of Tactics in the Context of Rural Puppy Markets in Northern China

Workshop 1: 19:45–21:15 UTC

Anthrozoology, AIP, and Ethos

Anthrozoology as International Practice (AIP) 2024

Day 2: Monday 18 November
(African/European-friendly times)

Welcome Address: 12:00 UTC

UTC?

Session 3: 12:15–13:45 UTC

Kerry Herbert (she/her)

PhD researcher, University of Exeter, UK

'Caring Greyhounds' and the Promise of the Idealised Encounter

Filipe Pimentel Rações (he/him)

Master's (2024), NOVA University of Lisbon, Portugal

Making Peace with Predators? Relations Between Humans, Wolves and Dogs in Central Portugal

Valentine Yakhlef (she/her)

Master's (2024), Escola Universitária Vasco da Gama, Portugal

Perception of Caretakers on Animal Consciousness in Wildlife Conservation

Poetry Reading & Workshop: 14:00–15:30 UTC

Gordon Meade (he/him)

Poetry and the DNA of the more-than-human world: a poetry reading and workshop

Session 4: 16:00–17:30 UTC

Anissa Bejaoui (she/her)

Master's student, Canisius University, USA

Lions, Orcas & Otters, Oh My! Radical Acts of Animal Resistance Fighters

Sima Zali Tktau (they/them)

Master's student University of Buenos Aires, Argentina

Postanthropocentric Worlding in the Lithium Triangle: Interspecies Alliances and Resistances in Latin American Extractivist Infrastructures

Blend Reka (he/him)

Undergraduate, Anglia Ruskin University, UK

Preparing for Assistance Dog Retirement: Information for Assistance Dog Users Available in the Public Domain

Anthrozoology as International Practice (AIP) 2024

Day 3: Tuesday 19 November
(Asian/Australasian-friendly times)

Welcome Address: 06:00 UTC

UTC?

Session 5: 06:15–07:45 UTC

Amie Johnstone (she/her)

PhD researcher, Edith Cowan University, Australia

To Sheep or Not To Sheep: Encouraging Empathy for Ovis Aries Through Storytelling

Saikat Pradhan (he/him)

PhD researcher, University of North Bengal, India

Looking at India in an Era of Ecological Precarity: Exploring the Need for Interspecies Kinship and Care Ethics in Shaunak Sen's All That Breathes

Altamush Saeed (he/him)

Master's (2024), Lewis and Clark Law School, USA

Interspecies Justice and Disasters: Protecting Human and Animal lives in the Age of the Anthropocene

Session 6: 08:00–09:30 UTC

Yoonjung Kim (she/her)

PhD Researcher, University of Cologne, Germany

"Fubao, It's a Miracle I Met You": How Female Panda Fans Are Transforming Human–Animal Relationships in South Korea

Surabhi Baijal (she/her)

Master's (2024), Ambedkar University Delhi, India

Ecologies of Cruelty: Animal Lives and Death in Contemporary India

Nathalie Schüller (she/her)

Undergraduate, University of Agricultural Sciences and Veterinary Medicine of Cluj–Napoca, Romania

Ethical Veganism and Horseback Riding

Flash talks: 10:00–11:30 UTC

See abstract book for full listing